BaseCamp Folding Table User Guide

Thank you for choosing the BaseCamp Folding Table. This user guide provides instructions on how to use and maintain your folding table effectively.

1. Introduction

The BaseCamp Folding Table is a versatile and portable table designed for outdoor camping, picnics, and other recreational activities. With its lightweight and foldable design, it provides convenience and functionality for your outdoor adventures.

Please read this user guide carefully before using the BaseCamp Folding Table to ensure proper assembly, use, and storage.

2. Unpacking and Inspection

When you receive your BaseCamp Folding Table, carefully unpack and inspect the contents to ensure everything is in good condition and all components are included. The package should include:

- BaseCamp Folding Table
- Table legs
- Carrying bag
- User Guide

If any parts are missing or damaged, please contact our customer support for assistance.

3. Table Setup

Follow these steps to set up the BaseCamp Folding Table:

Step 1: Unfolding the Table

1. Remove the table and legs from the carrying bag.
2. Unfold the table by gently pulling the sides apart.
3. Ensure that the table locks into place securely.

Step 2: Attaching the Legs

1. Locate the designated leg attachment points on the underside of the table.
2. Insert the legs into the attachment points until they click into place.
3. Ensure that the legs are fully extended and locked securely.

Step 3: Adjusting the Table Height (if applicable)

1. If your BaseCamp Folding Table has adjustable height settings, locate the height adjustment mechanism.
2. Adjust the table height to your desired position.

3. Ensure that the height adjustment mechanism is locked securely.

4. Table Folding and Storage

Follow these steps to fold and store the BaseCamp Folding Table:

Step 1: Detaching the Legs

1. Remove any items from the table surface.
2. Press the leg release buttons or mechanisms to unlock the legs.
3. Gently pull the legs out of the attachment points.

Step 2: Folding the Table

1. Collapse the table by folding the sides towards the center.
2. Ensure that the table folds flat and the locking mechanisms engage.

Step 3: Storing the Table

1. Clean the table surface if necessary.
2. Place the folded table into the carrying bag.
3. Ensure that the bag is securely closed.

5. Cleaning and Maintenance

To keep your BaseCamp Folding Table in good condition, follow these cleaning and maintenance guidelines:

- Clean the table surface with mild soap and water.
- Avoid using abrasive cleaners or solvents that may damage the table.
- Ensure the table is completely dry before folding and storing it.
- Store the table in a cool, dry place away from direct sunlight.

6. Safety Precautions

Please observe the following safety precautions while using the BaseCamp Folding Table:

- Do not exceed the table's maximum weight capacity.
- Avoid placing hot objects directly on the table surface.
- Ensure the table is set up on a stable and level surface.
- Keep fingers and hands away from the table's folding mechanisms.
- Do not use the table as a step ladder or for purposes other than intended.

If you have any questions or need further assistance, please contact our customer support using the provided contact information. We hope you enjoy using your BaseCamp Folding Table for all your outdoor activities!

Cautions:

1. Do not exceed the weight capacity: The BaseCamp Folding Table has a specified weight capacity. Avoid placing objects or applying weight that exceeds the recommended limit to prevent damage or collapse of the table.
2. Do not use as a step ladder: The BaseCamp Folding Table is designed for use as a table surface. Do not stand or climb on the table, as it may result in instability and potential injury.
3. Avoid placing hot objects directly on the table surface: The table surface may not be designed to withstand direct contact with hot objects. Use appropriate heat-resistant mats or trivets to protect the table surface and prevent damage.
4. Avoid uneven or unstable surfaces: When setting up the table, ensure that it is placed on a stable and level surface. Avoid using the table on uneven or unstable ground, as it may cause the table to tip or collapse.
5. Do not force the table during setup or folding: Use gentle and controlled movements when unfolding, setting up, or folding the table. Avoid using excessive force, as it may damage the table or its locking mechanisms.
6. Do not store the table when wet or dirty: Before storing the BaseCamp Folding Table, ensure that it is clean and completely dry. Storing the table while it is wet or dirty can lead to mold, mildew, or damage to the table material.
7. Avoid placing sharp objects directly on the table surface: To prevent scratches or punctures, avoid placing sharp objects directly on the table surface. Use protective covers or mats when working with sharp tools or utensils.
8. Do not modify or alter the table: Do not attempt to modify or alter the BaseCamp Folding Table in any way. Modifying the table may compromise its structural integrity and could result in accidents or injury.
9. Keep fingers and hands clear of folding mechanisms: Exercise caution when folding or unfolding the table to prevent fingers or hands from being caught in the folding mechanisms. Always keep your hands clear of the moving parts during setup and folding.
10. Do not leave the table unattended in windy conditions: In windy conditions, secure the table properly or consider folding and storing it to prevent it from being blown away or damaged.

Following these cautions will help ensure the safe and proper use of your BaseCamp Folding Table, prolong its lifespan, and enhance your outdoor experience.
